DETECTIVE DETECTED—Simon Acuna and Victoria Resias were arriagned before Justice Parker yesterday on the charge of adultery preferred by the husband of the woman Acuna claims to be a detective though for what agency or what he is detecting was not made known. Anyhow, he had been hanging about town and some days ago left, taking the woman with him. They stopped at various places, Mesa, Chandler and Gilbert. The nusband complained to the sheriff's office the woman admitted a lithe facts. When they were brought into court, Acuna denied everything until he heard the story of the woman when he sultenty said he would plead guilty. They were committed to superior court to be sentenced.

IRRIGATION SEASON

Another change in the irrigation eason is announced in a com-on by Project Manager W. the farmers in the Salt river valley.

The new season will consist of ten-months, and will end on September 30. The statement, which also gives out the water tolls, is as follows:

"In order that the U. S. Reclamation Service irrigation season may terminate with the agricultural season, the reclamation commission has authorized a change of the season December 1, 1915, to November 30, 1916, to read December 1, 1915 to September 36, 1916. This change results in a season of ten-months, covering the present delivery months, covering the present delivery of water and the following revised rates are effective for the season ending September 30, 1916, for water being delivered under application effective December 1, 1915:

ive December 1, 1915;

75c as a minimum charge for the first 1½ acre feet.

25c for the next one-half acre foot.

60c for the third acre foot.

75c per acre foot for all water furnished in excess of three acre feet.

'In cases where payment has been made in excess of these rates prior to October 1, 1916, and for which the amount of water purchased has not been delivered, the excess payment will be applied on the rental charge for the season beginning October 1, 1916.

ORAIBI DANCE WILL BE HELD AUGUST 26

by the Hopi Indians at Oraibi, 90 mile northeast of Flagstaff, on August 26 northeast of Flagstaff, on August 26. Always there is some misunderstanding regarding the date of the dance. That aribes from the fact that there are eight places on the reservation where snake dances take place within a period usually covering a week. There are four such dances this year. The dance at Oraibi, though not the most important, is the best known for it is more accessible to white visitors. In fact whites seldom witness any of

It is more accessable to white visitors. In fact, whites seldom witness any of the other dances.

There is some confusion algo, arising from the fact that the dance is sometimes called the Hopi snake dance and sometimes, the Moqui dance. and sometimes, the Moqui dance. There is an idea among the uninformed that there are two tribes of Indians. The right name is Hopi, meaning good. The other name was given to the tribe by the Navajos. "Moki" is also a Hopi word meaning dead.

Many years are when arents of the

Many years ago when agents of the government were making inquiry among the Navajos as to the Indians on the west, they were told that they were "Mokis," that is, dead Indians, and for many years that was the of-ficial name of the tribe.
